In Dedication

With the realization that we are still very young in heart and experience; with the knowledge that within their counsel there is yet peace and love, and a deeper, calmer faith for us to seek--we gratefully dedicate this,
the 1954 WARRIOR
to our parents and teachers.

Senior Class History

The Class of '54 will become part of Crofton High School's past in a few weeks--but it was fun while it lasted--a four-part story of comedies and study.

The Senior Class of '54 entered Crofton High in September of 1950 with 36 faint-hearted students who walked into the high-school assembly and were immediately tagged FRESHMEN. Superintendent Ubben was our sponsor. Later, we elected Mike Norris-President, Junior Mischke-Vice-President, and Melba Nohr-Secretary Treasurer. Our president, Mike Norris moved from Crofton by the time school ended. Not much happened that year except a class picnic in Janssen's pasture.

Three months later

We again walked into the assembly with a little more confidence but this time as SOPHOMORES. We elected Junior Mischke-President, Jim Wortmann-Vice-President, Bob Lockman-Secretary, and Rosemarie Mueller-Treasurer. The coach, Mr. Bruce, sponsored a delightful masquerade party in the school gym, and a refined picnic at the Chalk Rocks. Eight members of the class were waiters at the Junior-Senior Banquet, and they received a preview of what we were to organize and finance the next year.

Three months later

We were JUNIORS, and by this time the class had dwindled down a little. Four others joined us. They were Alice Scheafer, Carol Willenbring, Arlen Walters, and Kenny Sage. The Hermsens became our sponsors, Rose Marie Mueller-President, Rosemarie Meyer-Vice-President, Darrel Hofmaier-Secretary and Treasurer, and LaVern Jensen-Second Semester Secretary and Treasurer. We put on the most financially-successful class play presented in the Crofton Auditorium; and a beautiful Junior-Senior Banquet in the school gym. That night we lived in the Gay Nineties, were served by sophomores wearing derbies and mustaches, and were also entertained by a barber-shop quartette, who made up in enthusiasm, what they lacked in harmony.

Three months later

We again walked into that school assembly--we were a changed class- smooth, intelligent, and socially superior. We chose Junior Mischke-President, LaVern Jensen-Vice-President, Dave Couchman-Secretary, and Alice Scheafer-Treasurer. Our sponsor was Principal Cory. Arlen Walters, Kenny Sage, and Donna Doering left school but Betty Trenhaile, Bonnie Lenzen, and Marlon Smith took their places. Many things happened-- the freshmen learned to know and respect us during initiation, we bought class rings and pictures, gave school parties, a class play, went on a Sneak Day, made an annual, and were guests at our last Junior-Senior Banquet. Last but, not least, we received our diplomas.

The four years went by almost too fast and in a little while, we will graduate from the best years of our lives.

Class Will and Testament

We, the Seniors of "54" realize that the last four years have ended so we wish to will to the faculty our regular habits and excuses which we are so good about bringing from home.

To the Juniors we extend the right to accept or reflect all carved and battered desks, and our Senior dignity and superior intelligence.

To the Sophomores we will our ability in long arguments that never get us anywhere and our dislike for getting down to business.

To the Freshmen we will our fondness for coke and chewing gum and our skill in hitting the waste baskets with paperwads.

I, JEROME BERENDSEN, will my ability to get along with Mr. Moline to the Freshman Class and my plumbing tools and knowledge to any one who wants it.

I, DARLENE BOARDMAN, will my most treasured possession, my blond streak (I part ammonia and 3 parts proxide) to John Roberts and Glen Smith; will my drivers license to Jerry Steffen (to prevent further misfortunes).

I, LEO BOECKER, will my green pickup to Ewald Boecker; my ability to get good grades without studying to Alvin Tramp; one of my wavy hairs to each student and to each teacher; and my warm seat in the assembly to some one with a cold cold heart.

I, DAVID COUCHMAN will my Bomb (another name for my Model A) to Jerry (Grunt) Steffen and my ability to have fun at noon hour to Richard (Ole) Haberer.

I, ELTON ECKMANN, will my quiet nature to Dean Boardman; my height to Jimmy Doering; and my seat in the assembly to Dwayne Jackson (he needs a new one).

I, IRMENGARD GOELLER, will my ability to act like my self to Lavern Klimn; my Model A to Gertrude Kleinschmidt; my ability to have fun in an onary way to the Juniors (some are drips).

I, LOIS ANN GUENTHER, will my ability to tell respectable jokes to Robert Meyer; my good times at dances and staying out late to Janice Mischke; my brown eyes to anyone with blue eyes; my smile to any old sourpuss.

I, MERINA GUENTHER, will my blonde hair to Janice Hegge; my ability to keep quiet without being paid to Robert Meyer; and my seat in the assembly to anyone who wants it.

I, DAVID HOLTZ, will my ability to get along with girls to Daniel Kremer; my behavior in school to Rodney Schieffer; and my "car rides" to Sandra Mischke.

I, LaVERN JENSEN, will my distinguished (Santee Sioux) haircut to Dick Broders; my good behavior in the class room to Barry Kuehn; and my letters from the Marine Corps to Alice Bushelman.

I, BONNA LOU LENZEN, will my peculiar giggle and my ability to talk a lot to Judi Weber, and my hair cut to Diana Jilg.

I, ROBERT LOCKMAN, will my athletic ability and position on the football team to Ewald Boecker; my quiet nature to Barry Kuehn; and my curly red hair to Richard Haberer.

I, ROSEMARIE MEYER, will to Ethel Hofmaier the daily announcement of my arrival in the assembly by the tardy bell; to Barry Kuehn I will one dime (for one cherry beer and one sack of peanuts); and to Sandra Mischke my extensive vocabulary.

I, MELBA NOHR, will to Barry Kuehn my serene and optimistic nature; to La Vern Klimm, my ability to flirt scientifically; and to Carolyn Hillman my last name.

I, ALICE SCHAEFER, will my long hair to Judi Weber; my seat in the assembly to Gertrude Kleinschmidt; my ability to have fun at Crofton High School to Delano Meyer and Kenneth Kast.

I, ANTHONY SCHIEFFER, will my track ability to Rodney Schieffer; my black hair to Richard Haberer; and my sense of humor to the Freshman Class.

I, DENELDA SCHIEFFER, will my ability not to flirt to Judy Collins and Keith Steffen; my red hair to Sandra Mischke; and my C.Y.O. jacket to Gertrude Kleinschmidt.

I, LOREN SCHIEFFER, will my books to any Junior who wants them; my freckles to Fredrick Arens; and my ability to talk in the assembly to Harvey Lange.

I, MARLON SMITH, will my girl friends to my brother, Glen; to Barry Kuehn my ability to be in school at 8 o'clock; and my gold tooth to any worthy player.

I, BETTY TRENHAILE, will my desk in the assembly to anyone who is interested in football; my place in Algebra Class (all boys) to La Vern Klimm; and my fun on weekends to Janice Luckenbill.

I, CAROL WILLENBRING, will my ability not to get sick on a stogie to Danny Kremer; and to Sandra Mischke the contents of my fruit in the cellar or to who ever wants it. (It's got the spark).

I, JAMES WORTMANN, will my ability to play baseball to Le Roy Schumacher; and my knowledge on the subject of wine, women, and song to Keith Steffen.

Senior Prophecy

We, the Junior Class, being interested in the future of the Seniors of 1954, have consulted Madam Itu to predict the fate of these Seniors. We present to you her fateful words and then leave it to you to believe or not.

First come the two SCHIEFFERS, TONY and LOREN. They own and run the Bloody Pulp Cafe where they serve your steaks and meat the way you like them. It is located on 8th and Green Streets, Crofton, Nebraska.

ROSEMARIE MEYER is employed by her husband as his private secretary. The only reason she works is because he is too tight with his money.

On the rest resort at Gavin's Point Dam, MISS DENELDA SCHIEFFER is employed by the U. S. Government. She teaches swimming to lower the deàth rate from drowning.

ROSE MARIE MUELLER is selling a new type lipstick. This is a kind that will not smear or rub off. One tube is guaranteed to last at least five years for any young girl.

IRMIE GOELLER is now a famous song writer. Her most popular hit is "Dear Ralph".

MARLON SMITH certainly has made good use of his whistling ability. He is the director of the Whistling School in Elk Point, So. Dakota.

Could it be? DAVE HOLTZ breaking horses for his Uncle Ray at Aten.

ROBERT LOCKMAN is a successful football coach at Harvard University. Bob is certainly putting his football ability to practice.

Crofton can be proud of a '54 graduate, MERINA GUENTHER, who is a well-known author. Her most outstanding book is "Danny Boy".

LaVERN JENSEN is now editor of the "Lindy Daily News".

In the hills of old Tennessee a pert 65 year old school marm is beating heck out of little Willie Windjammer. We see that it is BETTY TRENHAILE.

BONNIE LENZEN is now master of ceremonies for Auntie Bonnie's Kiddie Time Show.

Captain LEO BOECKER is head of the New York Police Department. His last case was the rabies epidemic.

JEROME BERENDSEN is the inventor of the dripless faucet. He just demonstrated it in Hayville, Louisiana.

We have just found out where JIM WORTMANN can be located. If you want to learn how to beat a pinball machine, contact Mr. Wortmann at Room 102, Bedbug Hotel, Lynch, Nebraska.

DAVE COUCHMAN owns a 2,000 acre tobacco farm. His product is Davey's Special Blend.

JUNIOR MISCHKE now Mitch Mischke is appearing in 20th Century Fox's production, "Gateway to Yankton".

MELBA NOHR has invented a new hair dye, called "Dye it Pink"!

DARLENE BOARDMAN is, as expected, an ideal housewife. Her husband, an officer in the Air Force.

We are having no trouble in our military leadership, because LOIS ANN GUENTHER, is raising little Leaders for the U. S. Armed Forces.

CAROL WILLENBRING and DOROTHY KAISER are riding in their '29 Ford searching for eligible bachelors on the loose. Good Hunting!

ALICE SCHEAFFER is a shipping agent for the Joe Bromo Body Builders in Chicago.

And last but not least we have ELTON ECKMANN, the last man to let you down. He is co-owner of the Jones and Eckmann Mortician Business.

We, the Junior Class of '54 wish you, the Seniors, success and happiness in everything you do now and in the future.
